CARJACKING

Synopsis: On Thursday 3/28/96, a 1992 Acura Vigor LS was carjacked and its owner/driver, Donovan C. Parks, was shot and killed by unknown individual (S) in Baldwin County, Georgia.

Details: On Thursday evening at approximately 10:18 p.m., Donovan C. Parks, white male, date of birth 7/24/71, was found shot to death on Fulton Drive in Baldwin County (just off Highway 49) laying in the middle of the road. At the time of the shooting Parks was dressed in a suit and tie, last seen at approximately 10:00 p.m. returning from church. Missing is Park's vehicle, a 1992 Acura Vigor, VIN # JH4CC2642NC003951, bearing Georgia tag YPN183, 4 door, dark blue in color, with tinted windows and a cellular phone antenna on left rear. Also missing was Park's wallet with numerous credit cards and money.

Parks was killed at close range by a shot gun blast (believed to be #4 double buck) to the rear of his head.

At this time no suspects have been developed, and local authority in charge of this investigation is the Baldwin County Sheriff's Office, Chief Detective [REDACTED] (National Academy Graduate [REDACTED]).

Re: 26A-AT-81406, 04/26/1996

Both Marion Wilson and Robert Earl Butts are members of a Milledgeville (Baldwin County) black street gang known as the "FOLKS".

On April 3, 1996, all facts in the investigation regarding the murder of Donovan Corey Parks, and the carjacking of the 1992 Acura Vigor, were presented to [REDACTED] Assistant United States Attorney, Middle District of Georgia, Macon, Georgia. On April 5, 1996, AUSA [REDACTED] advised [REDACTED] (through United States letter) that after conferring with [REDACTED] [REDACTED], First Assistant United States Attorney, it was determined that Federal prosecution against Marion Wilson and Robert Earl Butts would not be appropriate. It is felt that both individuals should be prosecuted by local authorities.
